PROFILE

Web developer with experience in technologies more oriented for the Frontend Development such as Javascript, Html, Css and libraries like TailwindCss, React and Next.js, in addition I also developed some projetcs using Node and Express, I have 3 years in this amazing world that is the Web Development, how the months passed I decided to be more focus in the Frontend Development and I'm still learning more advanced topics but I don't rule out in the future being a full stack developer, here is my portfolio if you want to know more: https://dany-rivera.vercel.app

PROJECTS

I already did many projects with the technologies already mentioned, so here you can see many of my recent projects and you can also see the code in GitHub if you're interested:
